2023 Annual Report

Retiring President's Report

Linda Haley

2023 has continued to see growth for the number of SSP volunteers, as well as the agencies we serve. While we are far from pre-COVID numbers, we have returned to some of the agencies we worked with prior to the pandemic and added several new ones to our list.

Reiki continues to be the most represented modality we offer, but SSP definitely needs all services. As a practitioner or therapist, offering real-world experience at the VA, or in a health care setting, or a senior residential facility provides significant opportunities to advance your professional skills.

We have a need for volunteers who have availability to provide daytime volunteerism. If you are able to help for a few hours, please consider joining us. We are also receiving many requests for private hour-long sessions at the Center. Please let me know if you can help with this as well. I can promise a memorable experience.

With this annual report, I am pleased to turn the leadership of Stone Soup Project to one of my most trusted colleagues, Rebecca Dunaway. Since joining SSP as first a volunteer and then a member of the Board of Directors, Rebecca has distinguished herself as an innovative leader and an enthusiastic advocate for supporting the underserved community. I can envision only success on her path ahead.

President Emeritus
